30 APRIL 2024 (TUESDAY)
HKT 15:00-17:00 (ZOOM)

Speaker:

Prof. Thaddeus Metz

University of Pretoria, South Africa

PROF. METZ WILL ARTICULATE A NEW, RELATIONAL ETHIC INFORMED BY IDEAS FROM THE GLOBAL SOUTH, ESPECIALLY THE AFRICAN TRADITION, AND APPLY IT TO A RANGE OF APPLIED DEBATES IN HEALTHCARE. HIS AIM WILL BE TO REVEAL THE PLAUSIBILITY OF THE MORAL PRINCIPLE BY SHOWING THAT ITS IMPLICATIONS FOR MANY MEDICAL ETHICAL CONTROVERSIES ARE PHILOSOPHICALLY AT LEAST AS ATTRACTIVE, IF NOT MORE SO, THAN PRINCIPLES OF CARE AND AUTONOMY THAT HAVE BEEN DOMINANT IN ENGLISH-SPEAKING DISCOURSES.
